

KT
COURIER
TRIBUNE

Arts & Culture

B7 ♦ June 14, 2018 ♦

◆ Entertainment News in Brief

Rebuilding Together preps for car show

LIBERTY — Executive Director Clay McQuerry and his staff at Rebuilding Together Kansas City are offering the first Rebuilding Together Car Show Saturday, June 16.

McQuerry said all car makes, models and years are welcome. The atmosphere will be a casual non-judged one. There's no entrance fee, and the event is open to the public. There will be prizes as well as concessions available during the show, which starts at 4 p.m. McQuerry said the car show is an opportunity to unite car enthusiasts. The car show is hosted by the staff of Rebuilding Together Store in the store's parking lot at 1908 Plumbers Way, Suite 300. For more details, call 781-8814 or visit www.rebuildingtogetherkc.org.